

Mia Bella Donates to Locks of Love for Christmas

In the spirit of giving that permeates the company, Mia Bella Scocozzo recently volunteered and donated some of her beautiful long hair to the "Locks of Love" Program. This program is a non-profit organization that donates hair replacement to disadvantaged children under 18 who have illness that create hair loss challenges. You can read all about this wonderful organization by going to the following website: <http://www.locksoflove.org>
